February 22, 2024 Memo to the Public:

The VTRC Commission would like to share this slightly new procedure with those of you that would like to join us in our monthly public meetings. The next regularly scheduled meeting will be Tuesday, March 5th at 5:00 pm. We hope you can join us!

We will continue to use Teams as our virtual meeting platform. For logistical purposes, the only change will be that you would need to register to join. Your name and email address are required.

You can register with the link that will always be provided to you on each monthly agenda; placed on our website well in advance of each meeting.

You can find our website here: Meetings | Vermont Truth and Reconciliation Commission

Please note: If you are using a cell phone instead of a computer, it is also necessary to register to join. You would be prompted to simply download TEAMS (at no cost) to your cellphone. It is recommended that you start the registration and log-in process at least 10 minutes before the meeting starts in order to accomplish the one-time task of the Teams download.

Any questions, please feel free to reach out to the VTRC at VTRC@vermont.gov
